

PRUVAN NAMED TO HOUSINGWIRE'S 2015 HW TECH100™

HousingWire, the most influential industry news source covering the U.S. housing economy, has recognized Pruvan in its annual list of innovative technology providers. Pruvan has been named to the 2015 HW TECH100™ as an industry influencer in HousingWire's servicing category. More than 250 technology companies were considered for this prestigious award which looks at technology innovation along six different categories. These categories include uniqueness of solution, growth, market influence, market potential, elegance of implementation, and "something else entirely," a phrase used to describe other factors that drive innovation.

"Technology is changing both the mortgage and real estate industries in tangible and positive ways," said Paul Jackson, Publisher & CEO. "The honorees that are part of the 2015 HW TECH100™ are shaping this revolution, helping forge the future of an industry that drives the U.S. economic engine."

Pruvan is especially proud of this recognition given the increase in technology companies applying for consideration this year.

Jacob Gaffney, Executive Editor, commented, "This year we were struck by the level of innovation we saw, with 40 new additions to the HW TECH100. That speaks to how much change is taking place in the mortgage industry overall right now; we're seeing a lot of market disruption, and technology providers are clearly taking advantage of the opportunity that creates."

Paul Palmer, President of Pruvan, said, "Our team is honored to be included in this prestigious list of technology innovators. I am incredibly proud that our efforts to deliver an innovative mobile solution for the servicing industry has not gone unnoticed. This recognition validates our passion and dedication to improving operations not only for our customers but the industry as a whole."
